

Depression and Bipolar Disorder in Adolescents

Please join us for a program about adolescent mood disorders, presented by the Johns Hopkins' Adolescent Depression Awareness Program (ADAP).

Dr. Karen Swartz, a mood disorders specialist from Johns Hopkins will discuss and answer questions about adolescent Depression and Bipolar Disorder. Topics covered will include characteristics, symptoms, prevalence, and treatment.

Date & Time

May 17, 2017
6:30-7:30 pm

Location

Lecture Hall
Rouse High School
1222 Raider Way
Leander, TX 78641

Contact

Phone: (410) 502-3447
Email: cschock3@jhmi.edu

For other questions, please contact your school counselor or Steve Clark, Director of Counseling Services
Phone: (512) 570-0212

Program made possible by:

Please note: All parents and adults are welcome. The program is not appropriate for children or adolescents.