| Description  | Young children are introduced to the game of basketball through fun, skills-based games and activities. The curriculum, which is written by educators, will include everything from age-appropriate math and science to the fundamentals and strategy of the game. This new technique makes learning fun and engaging through the sport of basketball. | Players will receive practice instruction on fundamental and advanced skills from experienced ALM coaches. The winter prep league will consist of 45 min. of practice followed by league game play each week. The only exception will be Dec. 6 when coaches will lead practice for an hour and a half (no league play). Players will be assigned to a team after the first week and will be coached in league games by ALM coaches. Players receive a dri-fit shirt for games and practices. |
