Join Us For Horseback Riding Experiences

ERCT (501c3 nonprofit) has been rehabilitating rescued horses and now has a therapeutic riding program giving rescued horses an opportunity to have the noble job of providing therapeutic riding to children and adults with disabilities. Equine-oriented activities have proven to contribute positively to our cognitive, physical, emotional and social well-being. You are invited to come and experience it for yourselves.

Our Philosophy: We promote a culture of caring that extends from horses to humans and all other animals.
