

TEACHING AND TRAINING

PROGRAM OF STUDY

The Teaching and Training program of study prepares students for careers related to teaching, coaching, or other fields in education such as counseling, speech pathology, special education, and instructional aides. By working with students, planning and teaching lessons, and assisting with other teacher responsibilities, students will gain real world experience in the classroom. Students will be provided observation & internship opportunities within local schools. Participants of the Ready, Set, Teach program are guaranteed a job interview with LISD upon completing a teacher certification program.

INDUSTRY-BASED CERTIFICATION OPPORTUNITIES

The Educational Aide I certification measures the following domains or competencies: planning, managing, and providing education and training services and related learning support services; exploring and understanding needed preparation for Education and Training careers; and participating in a field based internship that provides background knowledge of child and adolescent development as well as principles of effective teaching and training practices. A student who completes the Educational Aide I certification could work in a variety of occupations within an educational setting. Some of the work activities could include: Tutoring and assisting children individually or in small groups to help them master assignments and to reinforce learning concepts; supervising students; teaching social skills to students; providing extra assistance to students with special needs; observing students' performance, and recording relevant data to assess progress and presenting subject matter to students under the direction and guidance of teachers, using lectures, discussions, or supervised role-playing methods.

Educational Fundamentals Pre-PAC (AAFCS) is an industry recognized certification driven by industry standards that validates achievement of competencies related to fundamentals of education and training.
